Things to note

- You should be attending English, Maths and Science as much as possible
- We're gradually introducing sessions - core & coursework = priority now
- We will introduce a two week timetable after October half term which includes revision for other exam subjects
- Pomodoro will not start until Tuesday the 6th of October 2020
- Drama - practical rehearsals will be scheduled as required. If you need further support with these see Mr Halford-Pollard.

English revision session topics

- Tuesday 22.09 - 'An inspector calls'
- Tuesday 29.09 - 'Macbeth'
- Tuesday 06.10 - 'Unseen poetry'
- Tuesday 13.10 - 'Language P1 Question 3 and 4'
- Tuesday 20.10 - 'Writing skills'

What is Pomodoro revision?

Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school from 3.30-5.00pm in the Main Hall.

1. Choose something you'd like to revise (bring your own resources).
2. Pomodoro timer set for 25 minutes.
3. Revise chosen topic for the 25 minute period.
4. When the timer goes off, pat yourself on the back!
5. Rest for 5 minutes.
6. Repeat from 2-5 again.
7. Repeat from 2-5 again.

Dedicated revision spaces

- LRC at break time and lunchtime Monday to Thursday for quiet revision on your own or in small groups.
- A1.01 at lunchtime every day for quiet revision on your own or in small groups.
 - You must get a pass from Mrs Abbott, Miss Cooper or Mr MacPhail so we are aware who is going into the room.

After October half term

- Revisions sessions for other exam-based subjects on a two week timetable.
- Virtual 'how to revise' introduction - similar to 'Navigating Success'.
- 'How to revise' programme for 6 weeks.
- Pause on Tuesday and Wednesday revision for at least two weeks to encourage attending to 'how to revise' sessions.
