Opening Minds in a Supportive and Purposeful Environment

The provision for art, drama and music is impressive and pupils' enthusiasm for learning in these subjects is palpable.
Ofsted 2017

The open, supportive culture is enabling pupils to develop confidence in their learning and social skills. This is clearly evident in the ease with which many pupils engage in discussions with adults and each other.

Opening Minds in a Supportive and Purposeful Environment

Pupil comments such as, 'I love it here, it is so welcoming,' and, 'teachers inspire us to learn' characterise many of the views expressed by pupils during the inspection.

The STANWAY SCHOOL

A High Performing School of Choice

Outcome

High performing English, Maths and Science departments

Results at GCSE above national expectations
every year

Astute leadership has led to significant improvements in pupils' achievement since the previous inspection.

Ofsted 2017

Excellent range of courses available (both GCSE and non-GCSE) through Key Stage

⁴
Sigma Sixth provision for post-16 courses, such as A Levels

Target setting:

High aspirations for all learners

Students are set GCSE targets from the day they arrive at the school. These are aspirational, and factor in a challenge for all learners

Students are set for individual subjects based on the outcomes of Year 6

Mixed ability groups are only for PE, DT, Art, Music and Drama

General Advice

- Make the right choice for your son/daughter
- If you prefer Stanway, it must be your first preference
- If you are thinking of the Grammar Schools, put them first and Stanway second
- Use as many preferences as you can
- Work with your Primary School Headteacher
