Games Careers Week Website Now Live!

You can find videos, explainers, links and information on games careers designed for parents, educators and young people from every background as well as over 30 inspiring events running during the Games Careers Week Festival. More are being added every day!

Explore over 30 Free Events from Games Careers Week

Between March 26th and 2nd April 2021, over 75 event partners - including games studios, nonprofit organisations and educational institutions – are running free events such as exhibitions, workshops, panel discussions, career fairs, conferences and talks to encourage students and parents, to explore the potential of video games careers.

The site provides a comprehensive guide for anyone interested in a career in video games. Participants of all ages and backgrounds can benefit from the experience and advice of some of the UK's top industry leaders - from how games are made, useful subjects and skills to study, portfolio building, networking and how to break into the industry, and more.

Virtual Work Experience

Over the past year companies have realised that work experience needed to change and many are now offering a virtual experience.

If you want something to do over the 2nd half of the Easter break then take a look at what SpringPod has to offer.

Once completed this is something you can add to your CV and talk about in interviews.

PLEASE NOTE

The programme will take place between 6th April 2021 and 16th April 2021. You do not need to be available full time between those dates, but you do need to be able to complete 10 hours worth of activity over the two weeks.

Eligibility

The virtual work experience programme will take place from 6th April to the 16th April 2021. The deadline for applications is March 29th 2021 and applicants will hear if they have a place on the programme on the evening of March 31st 2021.

Students in England in Years 10, 11, 12 and 13 that attend a school or college in the UK are welcome to apply.
